

Joel W. Meskin, Esq., CCAL Fellow, CIRMS, MLIS is the Managing Director, Community Association Products at McGowan Program Administrators. He joined MPA as Vice President - Community Association Insurance and Risk Management in 2005. MPA is a leading provider of Community Association Insurance Products nationwide. He is the former Senior Vice President, Ian H. Graham Insurance from 2001 and 2004. For 15 years, he worked as an attorney specializing in insurance coverage and related litigation and first obtained an insurance broker's license in 1981. He has obtained the designation of a Community Insurance & Risk Management Specialist ("CIRMS") by the Community Associations Institute and is a Fellow of the CAI College of Community Association Lawyers. He obtained the designation of Management Liability Insurance Specialist from the International Risk Management Institute ("MLIS"). Joel has been a member of the CAI Insurance Networking Committee since 2001. Joel was elected to his third term on the National Community Association Institute Business Partners Council holding the Insurance Professional position and has been elected as the Chair Elect of the BPC. Joel is currently a member of the National CAI Board of Trustees for 2017/18. Joel is a member of the Foundation for Community Association Research, Think Tank as is part of the Technology and Data Security Task Force. He has also obtained the Community Association Institute Educated Business Partner Distinction and along with McGowan Program Administrators is a National Corporate member of the Community Association Institute. Finally, along with the foregoing, he is a prolific author and speaker on community association insurance and risk management topics.