

Jon Adams, Deputy Chief of Staff

Davidson County Sheriff's Office:

Jon began his Davidson County Sheriff's Office (DCSO) career in 2006 as a correctional officer, working in housing, booking, & special management units. He served as sergeant, training instructor, communications project specialist, and appointed as Deputy Chief of Staff in 2020. Jon is responsible for video content creation, media relations, and advisor to the chief of staff. He works closely with local media agencies, responding to public information requests as well as agency website, and public information messaging.

Throughout his career with the DCSO, Jon has been involved with professional development, policy creation, and outreach events. He graduated from the Tennessee Correctional Institute's (TCI) Tennessee Leadership Academy, is a certified state-wide instructor, and guest instructor at the Tennessee Law Enforcement Training Academy. Jon's professional articles have been featured in American Jail's Association (AJA) magazines and he has been a guest presenter for the TCI Annual Conference, as well as the AJA National Conference.