

Casey Hawkins

Senior VP of Homeowner Services, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville

With nearly two decades of dedicated service, Casey Hawkins has been a cornerstone of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Nashville whose mission is to put God's love into action, by bringing people together to build homes, communities and hope. Serving as the Senior Vice President of Homeowner Services, she has played a pivotal role in transforming lives and communities by helping individuals and families achieve their dream of homeownership.

As Senior Vice President, Casey oversees the Homeowner Services team in originating and servicing 0% interest affordable mortgage loans for eligible buyers, implementing grant funding, providing homebuyer education classes (including homeowner's association topics), developing homeowner support programs, and establishing partnerships that enhance the organization's impact. Her leadership has been marked by a relentless commitment to empowering homeowners, guiding them through the process with empathy and expertise. Her work and the mission of Habitat not only provides shelter but also strengthens neighborhoods, creating lasting change and stability for Habitat's homeowners.

Casey has resided in Nashville for 20 years and values spending quality time outdoors with her husband and two daughters. She earned her M.B.A. from Lipscomb University with focus on non-profit management, and is dedicated to ensuring that Nashville becomes a city where affordable housing is accessible to all, enabling every resident to actively participate and contribute to the community.
