

SCOTT D. WEISS, ESQ., CCAL

Scott Weiss is the managing partner and Tennessee office chair for Kaman & Cusimano, LLC. Scott is one of only 185 attorneys nationwide, and Tennessee's first and only attorney inducted as a Fellow into Community Associations Institute's prestigious College of Community Association Lawyers (CCAL). Kaman & Cusimano represents Associations in matters involving delinquent account collections, restrictions enforcement, HOA rights in bankruptcy, State and Federal Fair Housing laws; governing document and lease interpretation, composition, amendments and legal opinions; parliamentary procedure; and association general counsel matters. Scott has been featured in publications such as The Tennessean, The Washington Post and the Wallstreet Journal, and lectures regularly locally and throughout the United States on matters related to community associations.

sweiss@kamancus.com