

Marielle Westerman is Managing Partner of Westerman Law, PLLC and has been practicing community association law for over twenty years. Ms. Westerman received her Bachelor of Science degree in Finance at the University of South Florida and her Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration from Stetson University College of Law. Ms. Westerman is a member of both the Tennessee Bar and The Florida Bar where she serves on the Real Property Section and the Florida Bar's Planned Development Committee. Ms. Westerman has been admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee. Ms. Westerman was recently named a 2026 Super Lawyer, a designation on the list that only the top 5% of lawyers receive.

In her practice, Ms. Westerman routinely counsels community associations on matters pertaining to covenant enforcement, collections, Fair Housing matters, document amendments and revisions, insurance claims, and litigation.