

Nathan oversees all landscape maintenance operations in our Nashville (TN) branch. His responsibilities include planning, budgeting, personnel development, and ensuring customer satisfaction. He holds an Associate of Science in Agriculture, along with certifications in stormwater control measures and Category 3 pesticide application, bringing both technical expertise and practical leadership to the field.